LOCAL LAW NO. 1 FOR 2002

A LOCAL LAW OF THE TOWN OF NEW SCOTLAND, NEW YORK, GRANTING A PARTIAL TAX EXEMPTION OF REAL PROPERTY OWNED BY SENIOR CITIZENS WITH LIMITED INCOMES IN ACCORDANCE WITH REAL PROPERTY TAX LAW SECTION 467

BE IT ENACTED by the Town Board of the Town of New Scotland as follows:

SECTION 1. Local Law No. 1 for 2002 is entitled:

A LOCAL LAW OF THE TOWN OF NEW SCOTLAND, NEW YORK, GRANTING A PARTIAL TAX EXEMPTION OF REAL PROPERTY OWNED BY SENIOR CITIZENS WITH LIMITED INCOMES IN ACCORDANCE WITH REAL PROPERTY TAX LAW SECTION 467

SECTION 2. Fifty percent exemption granted: conditions.

Effective as hereinafter provided, there shall be an exemption from taxation for general town purposes to the extent of fifty (50%) of the assessed valuation of real property owned by one (1) or more persons, each of whom is sixty-five (65) years of age or over, or real property owned by husband and wife, or by siblings, one (1) of whom is sixty-five (65) years of age or over, upon the following terms and conditions:

A. No exemption shall be granted pursuant to this section:

1) If the income of the owner or the combined income of the owners of the property for the income tax year immediately preceding the date of making application for exemption exceeds the sum of twenty-one thousand five hundred dollars ($21,500.). "Income tax year" shall mean the twelve-month period for which the owner or owners filed a federal personal income tax return or, if no such return is filed, the calendar year. Where title is vested in either the husband or wife, their combined income may not exceed such sum. Such sum shall include social security and retirement benefits, interest, dividends, total gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset which may be offset by a loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset in the same income tax year, net rental income, salary or earnings and net income from self-employment, but shall not include a return of capital, gifts, inheritances, payments made to individuals because of their status as victims of Nazi persecution, as defined in P.L. 103-286, monies earned through the federal foster grandparent program or any medical or prescription drug expenses actually paid which were not reimbursed or paid by insurance. The provisions of this paragraph, notwithstanding such income, shall not include veterans disability compensation, as defined in Title 38 of the United States Code. In computing net rental income and net income from self-employment, no depreciation deduction shall be allowed for the exhaustion, wear and tear of real or personal property held for the production of income.

2) Unless the title of the property shall have been vested in the owner or one (1) of the owners of the property for at least twelve (12) consecutive months prior to the date of making application for exemption; provided, however, that in the event of the death of either husband or wife in whose name title of the property shall have been vested at the time of death and then becomes vested solely in the survivor by virtue of devise by descent from the deceased husband or wife, the time of ownership of the property by the deceased husband or wife shall be deemed also a time of ownership by the survivor, and such ownership shall be deemed continuous for the purpose of computing such period of twelve (12) consecutive months, provided, further, that in the event of a transfer by either a husband or wife to the other spouse of all or part of the title to the property, the time of ownership of the property by the transferor spouse shall be deemed also a time of ownership by the transferee spouse and such ownership shall be deemed continuous for the purpose of computing such period of twelve (12) consecutive months, and provided further that where property of the owner or owners has been acquired to replace property formerly owned by such owner or owners and taken by eminent domain or other involuntary proceeding, except a tax sale, the period of ownership of the formerly property shall be combined with the period of ownership of the property for which the application is made for exemption, and such periods of ownership shall be deemed to be consecutive for the purposes of this section. Where a residence is sold and replaced with another within one (1) year and is in the same assessing unit or municipality, the period of ownership of the replacement residence is deemed consecutive for exemption from taxation by each such assessing unit or failure of such person to receive the same shall not prevent the levy, collection and enforcement of the collection of taxes on property owned by such person.

3) Application for such exemption must be made by the owner, or all of the owners of the property, on forms prescribed by the State Board to be furnished by the appropriate local assessing unit, and shall furnish the information and be executed in the manner required or prescribed on such forms, and shall be in such Assessor's Office on or before the appropriate taxable status date. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person otherwise qualifying under this section shall not be denied the exemption under this section if he becomes sixty-five (65) years after the appropriate taxable status date and on or before December 31st of the same year..

4) At least sixty (60) days prior to the appropriate taxable status date, the appropriate local assessing unit shall mail to each person who was granted exemption pursuant to this section on the latest completed assessment roll, an application form and a notice that such application must be filed on or before taxable status date and be approved in order for the exemption to be granted. The appropriate local assessing unit shall, within three (3) days of the completion and filing of the tentative assessment roll, notify by mail any applicant who has included with his application at least one (1) self-addressed, prepaid envelope, of the approval or denial of the application; provided, however, that the appropriate local assessing unit shall, upon receipt and filing of the application, send by mail notification of receipt to any applicant who has included two (2) of such envelopes with the application. Where the applicant is entitled to a notice of denial pursuant to this subsection, such notice shall be on a form prescribed by the State Board and shall state the reasons for such denial and shall state that the applicant may have such determination reviewed in the manner provided by law. Failure to mail any such application form or notices or failure of such person to receive any of the same, shall not prevent the levy collection and enforcement of the payment of the taxes on property owned by such person.

5) Any conviction of having made any willful false statement in the application for such exemption, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) and shall disqualify the applicant or applicants from further exemption for a period of five (5) years.

6) The real property tax exemption on real property owned by a husband and wife, one (1) of whom is sixty-five (65) years of age or over, once granted, shall not be rescinded by the Town of New Scotland solely because of the death of the older spouse so long as the surviving spouse is at least sixty-two (62) years of age.

7) The appropriate local assessing units shall accept applications for the renewal of exemptions pursuant to this section after the taxable status date. In the event that the owner or all of the owners of property which has received an exemption pursuant to this section on the preceding assessment roll fail to file the application required pursuant to this section on or before taxable status date, such owner or owners may file the application, executed as if such application had been filed on or before taxable status date, with the Assessor on or before the date for the hearing of complaints.

SECTION 3. Partial Exemption (less than fifty percent) conditions:

Effective as hereinafter provided, there shall be an exemption from town taxation by the Town of New Scotland on real property owned by one (1) or more persons, each of whom is sixty-five (65) years of age or over, or real property owned by husband and wife or by siblings, one of whom is sixty-five (65) years of age or over, to the extent of the percentage of assessed valuation provided in the following schedule, determined by the maximum income eligibility level also provided in the following schedule:

ANNUAL INCOME	PERCENTAGE OF ASSESSED VALUATION EXEMPT FROM TAXATION
$21,500 or less	50
More than $21,500 but less than $22,500	45
$22,500 or more but less than $23,500	40
$23,500 or more but less than $24,500	35
$24,500 or more but less than $25,400	30

$25,500 or more but less than $26,300	25
$26,300 or more but less than $27,200	20
$27,200 or more but less than $28,100	15
$28,100 or more but less than $29,000	10
$29,000 or more but less than $29,900	5

A. No exemption shall be granted pursuant to this section:

1) If the income of the owner or the combined income of the owners of the property for the income tax year immediately preceding the date of making application for exemption exceeds the sum of twenty-nine thousand nine hundred dollars ($29,900). "Income tax year" shall mean the twelve-month period for which the owner or owners filed a federal personal income tax return or, if no such return is filed, the calendar year. Where title is vested in either the husband or wife, their combined income may not exceed such sum. Such income shall include social security and retirement benefits, interest, dividends, total gain from the sale or exchange of a capital asset which may be offset by a loss from the sale or exchange of a capital asset in the same income tax year, net rental income, salary or earnings and net income from self-employment, but shall not include a return of capital, gifts, inheritances, payments made to individuals because of their status as victims of Nazi persecution, as defined in P.L. 103-286, monies earned through the federal foster grandparent program or any medical or prescription drug expenses actually paid which were not reimbursed or paid by insurance. The provisions of this paragraph notwithstanding, such income shall not include veterans disability compensation as defined in Title 38 of the United States Code. In computing net rental income and net income from self-employment, no depreciation deduction shall be allowed for the exhaustion, wear and tear of real or personal property held for the production of income.

2) Unless the title of the property shall have been vested in the owner or one (1) of the owners of the property for at least twelve (12) consecutive months prior to the date of making application for exemption; provided, however, that in the event of the death of either husband or wife in whose name title of the property shall have been vested at the time of death and then becomes vested solely in the survivor by virtue of devise by or descent from the deceased husband or wife, the time of ownership of the property by the deceased husband or wife shall be deemed also a time of ownership by the survivor, and such ownership shall be deemed continuous for the purpose of computing such period of twelve (12) consecutive months provided, further, that in the event of a transfer by either a husband or wife to the other spouse of all or part of the title to the property, the time of ownership of the property by the transferor spouse shall be deemed also a time of ownership by the transferee spouse and such ownership shall be deemed continuous for the purpose of computing such period of twelve (12) consecutive months, and provided further that where property of the owner or owners has been acquired to replace property formerly owned by such owner or owners and taken by eminent domain or other involuntary proceeding, except a tax sale, the period of ownership of the former property shall be combined with the period of ownership of the property for which the application is made for exemption, and such periods of ownership shall be deemed to be consecutive for the purposes of this section. Where a residence is sold and replaced with another within one (1) year and is in the same assessing unit or municipality, the period of ownership of the former property shall be combined with the period of ownership of the replacement residence and deemed consecutive for exemption from taxation by each assessing unit or municipality. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, where a residence is sold and replaced with another within one (1) year and both residences are within the state, the period of ownership of both properties shall be deemed consecutive for the exemption from taxation by a municipality within the state granting such exemption.

3) Unless the property is used exclusively for residential purposes.

4) Unless the real property is the legal residence and is occupied, in whole or in part, by the owner or by all of the owners of the property.

B. Application for such exemption must be made by the owner, or all of the owners of the property, on forms prescribed by the State Board to be furnished by the appropriate local assessing unit, and shall furnish the information and be executed in the manner required or prescribed on such forms, and shall be filed in such Assessor's Office on or before the appropriate taxable status date. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person otherwise qualifying under this section shall not be denied the exemption under this section if he becomes sixty-five (65) years after the appropriate taxable status date and on or before December 31st of the same year.

C. At least sixty (60) days prior to the appropriate taxable status date, the appropriate local assessing unit shall mail to each person who was granted exemption pursuant to this section on the latest completed assessment roll an application form and a notice that such application must be filed on or before taxable status date and be approved in order for the exemption to be granted. The appropriate local assessing unit shall, within three (3) days of the completion and filing of the tentative assessment roll, notify by mail any applicant who has included with his application at least one (1) self-addressed, prepaid envelope, of the approval or denial of the application; provided, however, that the appropriate local assessing unit shall, upon receipt and filing of the application, send by mail notification of receipt to any applicant who has included two (2) of such envelopes with the application. Where the applicant is entitled to a notice of denial pursuant to this subsection, such notice shall be on a form prescribed by the State Board and shall state the reasons for such denial and shall state that the applicant may have such determination reviewed in the manner provided by law. Failure to mail any such application form or notices or failure of such person to receive any of the same, shall not prevent the levy collection and enforcement of the payment of the taxes on property owned by such person.

D. Penalty for false statement; collection or erroneous exemption; payment of fines.

1) Any conviction of having made any willful false statement in the application for such exemption, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) and shall disqualify the applicant or applicants from further exemption for a period of five (5) years.

2) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions of the New York State Real Property Tax Law, the collection of any amount of tax erroneously exempted due to an incorrect statement in an application for exemption shall be enforceable in the same manner provided for the collection of delinquent taxes pursuant to the provisions of Article 11 of the New York State Real Property Tax Law.

3) Any fine levied pursuant to Subsection D(1) of this subsection shall be paid to the appropriate assessing authority.

E. The real property tax exemption on real property owned by a husband and wife, one of whom is sixty-five (65) years of age or over, once granted, shall not be rescinded by the Town of New Scotland solely because of the death of the older spouse so long as the surviving spouse is at least sixty-two (62) years of age.

F. The appropriate local assessing unit shall accept applications for the renewal of exemptions pursuant to this section after the taxable status date. In the event that the owner or all of the owners of property which has received an exemption pursuant to this section on the preceding assessment roll fail to file the application required pursuant to this section on or before the taxable status date, such owner or owners may file the application, executed as if such application had been filed on or before the taxable status date, with the Assessor on or before the date for the hearing of complaints.

SECTION 4. Effective Date.

This law shall take effect immediately and shall apply to assessment rolls prepared on the basis of taxable status dates occurring on and after January 1, 2003.
