

Mount Greylock – Sept 24, 2009

3,491 feet (1,064 m)

The highest point in Massachusetts

Bascom Lodge and Saddle Ball Mtn. looking SW from the War Memorial Tower

The War Memorial Tower atop Mount Greylock

This day will feature a picnic lunch with assorted submarines, chips, cookies and soda.

NOTE: The summit of Mt Greylock has paved walking paths, but there are uneven patches in spots. Sturdy walking shoes/sneakers are a MUST. Due to the time of year a jacket and/or a sweater is a good idea as the summit may be a bit chilly (65' +/-).

2009 Attendees: Lois Crouse, Joan Joslin, Ethel Smith, Norma Vilar, Helen Cantlin, Pat & Herb Leichman, Barbara Pomian, Pat Hammond, Alice Lemieux, Wally Ghromley, Pat & Lee Martin - Larry Walley was the driver/tour guide

Seniors enjoying their picnic lunch inside

