Town of New Scotland

Local Law #2 of the year 2007

A local law extending Local Law #7 of 2006 for an additional 6 months.

Be it enacted by the Town Board of the Town of New Scotland as follows:

SECTION I.

SHORT TITLE

This Local Law shall be cited as Local Law 2 of 2007 of the Town of New Scotland.

SECTION II.

LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS

The Town of New Scotland is facing unprecedented growth and development, particularly in the area of the Town zoned MDR and R-2. Current proposals include large scale residential development. To address this issue, the Town Board is studying changes to the zoning in the area in question.

While that study is being conducted, the Town's rural character, historic features, and many other valuable features, and many other valuable resources are threatened by rapid development. The Town Board finds that significant development in the MDR and R-2 zones, beyond that which is currently under review, prior to the enactment of amendments to the Zoning Law may substantially reduce the effectiveness of such amendments and might lessen the ability of the Town Board to afford adequate facilities for the distribution of public services, comfort, convenience, public health and safety, and the general welfare of the citizens of the Town of New Scotland.

On September 13, 2006 the Town Board passed Local Law #7 of 2006, suspending certain large scale development in the MDR and R-2 zones for a period of 6 months, while the Town Board studied proposed amendments to the Town Zoning Law. That study has progressed, but is not yet finalized. That law was extended for 6 months by local Law # 1 of 2007. A Further extension of Local Law #7 of 2006 is necessary to enable the Town Board to complete its study and consideration of proposed amendments to the Town Zoning Law.
